

Name JULIA

Date MAY 12 2010.

This is what I saw in the tank today.

I noticed that the pumpkin plants have long vines that are growing out of the tank. The vines look fuzzy and hairy. The leaves are shaped like big wide hearts and the veins really show up. There are still some seeds and the stem in the bottom of the tank, but no orange skin.